

Discussion Questions # 2

The Fantasy of Pornography

1. So what do people fantasize about when it comes to pornography?
2. How is a sexual addiction an attempt to escape reality?
3. How does the story of the Mirror of Erised apply to the fantasy of pornography?
4. How did you feel about yourself in the middle of the fantasy?
5. What were the ways you WANTED to feel about yourself?
6. If the other people in the pornographic experience were to look you in the eyes and say something directly to you, what is it that you long to hear?
7. What do you long to believe about yourself?
8. Explain why someone would come back again and again to pornography?
9. Why is pornography a big lie?
10. So, what is the truth about who we actually are?
11. How do we find the peace that passes all understanding?
12. How does authentic relationship with others take away the pull of pornography?