

Weekend Therapy Intensives

Ideal for Those Struggling With:
Pornography • Cyber Sex • Sexual Addiction
Sexual Shame • Sexual Acting-Out • Affairs

For years church leaders have asked how they can help the men, women, and marriages in their congregation that have been imprisoned by sexual addiction or sexual issues.

Now there is a good answer to that question. Two professional Christian counselors, who specialize in sexual addiction, have teamed up to facilitate weekend therapy intensives for those struggling with sexual integrity and their spouses.

Ryan Butterfield

- Licensed Professional Counselor
- Certified Sexual Addiction Therapist
- Certified Multiple Addiction Therapist
- M.S. Marriage and Family Therapy

Ryan Butterfield and Jim Galyan have been leading individual & group therapy intensives as Clinical Directors of Capstone Treatment Ctr. They now bring their experience and expertise to the public by helping those who are in desperate need of healing and rebuilding.

The intensive will be held at a retreat center or another suitable location. Fee includes lodging, meals and all materials needed.

Future intensives will be designed for female spouses hurt by their husband's sexual acting out, and marital intensives for rebuilding the trust and marriage bond broken by sexual issues.

The group intensive will provide over 20 hours of therapy capitalizing on momentum and focus, to gain about a year of progress when compared to attending weekly sessions.

In addition, a comprehensive aftercare plan will be provided with 1) continued group support, 2) and optional weekly individual marital therapy for those wanting continued professional care from a Christian perspective.
